

Quick Facts:

Infection Control for public workers provides a quick online awareness training to help prevent the spread of disease. This course takes about .45 minutes to complete and is intended for any workers in direct contact with the public.

Computer Based Training Benefits:

- Save up to 50% or more over classroom training
- Cuts training time up to 50%
- Eliminates the need to schedule classroom training sessions
- Saves time developing and organizing training
- 24/7 Education instantly available
- New hires can be immediately trained
- Improves the quality, effectiveness and retention of training
- Ensures consistency of training throughout an organization
- Automatic scoring of employee results produces a due diligence trail
- Company customization available

Infection Control Online

Infection Control for Public

Workers is an online awareness course that educates public workers in the basic elements of infection control. This infection control training program is intended for workers in fields such as family and children’s care agencies, long term care workers, or any workers in direct contact with the public.

Workers can complete the training in about .45 minutes and self-print a certificate of completion.

This educational software turns any computer into an public care worker infection control awareness center.

Employees proceed at their own pace through graphical narrated lessons and a final quiz. This training is available 365/24/7 and relieves you of the hassle of scheduling and delivering classroom training. Training Management software allows you to view and print training done. Call for a demo preview or pricing!

Helps Keep People Safe
1-800-893-9333 pacific
e-mail: info@kccsoft.com

Infection Control for Public Workers: Features

Topics include:

- Introduction
- Responsibilities
- Causes of infection
- Preventing infection
- Occupational Hazards
- Quiz

A popular match for this course is:

WHMIS for Office Workers

Time to complete: Approx. 40 minutes (equivalent to a 1-2 hour classroom training session).

Training Manager Software

Training Center
Students print their own certificate of completion

Infection Control for Public Workers Features:

- Multimedia with audio to enhance learning
- Self-paced interactive tutorials - employees proceed at their own pace
- Simple to operate
- Contains glossary feature
- Notes feature allows students to take/print notes
- Students can self-print certificates (if enabled by manager)
- Custom company login with certificate printing
- Randomized, automatically scored 'cheat proof' final exam
- Training management module allows you to review training results, set course parameters and pass mark and batch print certificates
- Web-based HTML5 delivery for windows, apple, desktop or tablet computers.
- Company customization is available

Web based delivery requirements:

- Any modern HTML5 capable tablet or desktop computer
- High speed internet connection

Please call for information or demo access: 1-800-893-9333